

THE GEOLOGICAL SOCIETY OF GLASGOW

Eleanor Duncanson

We have just heard the sad news that Eleanor Duncanson, a member of the society since December 2000, died on Thursday (19 January). She had been diagnosed with MND about a year ago. Here is a link to the end of life announcement prepared by her husband Fergus. Many of you will know Eleanor from society meetings and excursions.

Eleanor's funeral will be held in Lambhill Crematorium at 3 pm on Friday 3 February, and there will be a reception after at Kilmardinny House. Eleanor requested that friends attending the funeral wear some colour, not black, and preferably something that reflects the context of your friendship (sailing, geology, singing, etc.)
